Technical Papers

We present our extensive range, including special drawing paper and technical drawing paper. These types of paper are optimally adapted for the demands of technical drawings and all processes of reproduction, microfilming etc.

The range of opaque papers and papers for school applications includes white drawing paper for technical and artistic drawings, as well as sheets for drawings and technical drawings. Both are available with or without printed margins and text fields.

Graph paper is available as drawing paper, with 1-milimeter scale, in various colors.
