Cold Pressed Art Paper

slide 2 of 5

Cold Pressed Art Paper

Paper with the look and feel of the traditional papermaking art that Hahnemühle has been practising since 1584

The Hahnemühle Cold Pressed Art Paper 250 is an uncoated and cold pressed matt white paper which is characterised by its light texture. This unique texture sets the Cold Pressed Art Paper 250 apart from any other specialty paper and creates an outstanding visual image effect. Excellent print results show through the perfect reproduction of detail, vivid colours and sharp texts, images, and illustrations while keeping the natural surface characteristics of the paper. Making the Hahnemühle Cold Pressed Art Paper 250 perform well for various applications and projects. With its look and feel it leans on the traditional paper making art practiced by Hahnemühle since 1584. The paper has been developed for HP Indigo® commercial presses but is also widely usable with other printing technologies.

Dry Minilab Luster

The Hahnemühle Dry Minilab Portfolio is part of the Studio & Décor Line and supplements this range with approved products for DIY printing systems. It consists of three high-quality inkjet media which are compatible with Dry Minilab systems from Noritsu, Epson and Fujifilm. The bright white papers are available in different surface finishes - glossy, luster, matte - for use with aqueous inks.

Perfectly suitable for photo prints and greetings cards, the papers excel with a high colour gamut and density resulting in brilliant colours and sharp details. They are lightfast, water-resistant, and suitable for cold and hot lamination processes.

A special image protection layer makes the glossy and luster papers even more scratch and dirt resistant especially against fingerprints. Furthermore, both papers come with a Hahnemühle backside print.

Hybrid Hemp

World's first hemp paper for book printing

Hahnemühle Hybrid Hemp is the world's first hemp paper for book printing. The uncoated paper consists of 60% hemp fibres, grown sustainably in Europe, and 40% cotton rag and is specially designed for HP PageWide Presses (High Speed Inkjet), HP Indigo presses as well as for analog Offset. It is also very suitable for traditional artistic printing techniques such as analogue artistic gravure and flat printing processes and further for new digital printing technologies that do not require a coating on the paper such as Latex, UV and Resin printing. With its look and feel it captivates with the authenticity and haptics of paper made from sustainable hemp fibres.
